

Courses

Different kinds of courses will be developed during the project period:

Foundation Course, corresponding to 3 ETCS

All partner institutions will give this course

Subject Courses, corresponding to 3 ETCS

One or two subject courses in each country

After the project period, the courses will be a part of the curriculum at the project partner institutions, and will be held as Comenius Courses.

A didactic manual for the courses is presentet at this website (manual)

Foundation course in general outdoor learning methodology:

The Foundation Course gives the students experience with, knowledge of and insight in using the landscape as a learning resource in the educational process.

After finishing the Foundation Course, the Student should have:

Insight into and knowledge of the opportunities offered by the landscape with respect to childrens and young peoples learning and development.

Basic knowledge of the landscape as a lerning environment.

Developed the ability to reflect upon their leadership in outdoor educational contexts.

Subject Courses

Different subject courses is developed in each country:

Sweden: Outdoor learning and Mothertongue

Czech Republic: Outdoor learning and Physical education

Latvia: Outdoor Learning and Music

Norway: Outdoor Learning and Mathematics

Denmark: Outdoor learning, Art and Handcraft

more information from Denmark

Estonia: Outdoor Learning and Science